

AN IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT OF THE BOOK

The Sheiling Ringwood
Camphill Roots in Southern England

In 1906, The Sheiling House was built as a family home on a small heathland estate close by Ringwood, on the borders of Hampshire and Dorset.

This book outlines its initial history, and how, in 1951, it came to play a part in the development of Camphill Communities by the establishment of The Sheiling School, and subsequently to the founding of a Eurythmy School, The Sheiling College, Sturts Farm, The Lantern Community and Ringwood Waldorf School.

Over 360 pages richly illustrated with photos, historical and contemporary articles and contributions, giving a fascinating insight into the founding of these Camphill Communities, a Eurythmy School and a Waldorf School.
