We will hold personal data in line with SSET's retention guidance. 9. Reasons we can collect and use your personal information:

To perform its ordinary duties, SSET may process a wide range of personal data about individuals, including past, current and prospective students or parents as part of its daily operation.

Some of this activity will need to be conducted in order to fulfil legal rights, duties and obligations. Other uses may be in accordance with SSET's legitimate interest or the legitimate interests of another, provided that these are not outweighed by the impact on individuals and provided it does not involve special category data.

Legal grounds for using your information:

Legitimate interests: means that the processing is necessary for legitimate interest except where the processing is unfair to you.

SSET relies on legitimate interests as a lawful basis for processing in relation to most of the ways in which we use your information. Our legitimate interests are to:

- Administer student admission and registration.
- Provide education and care (including residential and health/medical care) to students.
- Monitor students' progress and educational records.
- Support our students' learning, monitor, and report on their progress.
- Maintain relationships with parents and the Sheiling community (including newsletters and details of fundraising activities).
- Manage, plan, and forecast and for research and statistical analysis, including that imposed or provided for by law.
- Enable relevant authorities to monitor SSET's performance and to intervene and assist with incidents as appropriate.
- Give and receive references and information about past, current and prospective students to/from any other educational institution that the student attended or proposes to attend.
- Enable students to take part in assessments, and to publish the results of or other achievements of student in the school/college.

- Monitor (as appropriate) use of SSET's IT and communications systems in accordance with the SSET IT and Acceptable Use Policies.
- Make use of photographic images of students in SSET and individual publications including the SSET website and (where appropriate) on SSET's social media channels in accordance with SSET's Policies.
- Ensure security, including CCTV in accordance with SSET's CCTV Policy.
- Ensure the proper operation of the school/college, including ensuring that all relevant legal obligations are complied with.
- Assess the quality of our services. We may also use information for historical research or statistical purposes.

In addition, your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interest of others.

Legal obligation: where SSET needs to use personal information to comply with a legal obligation. For example, reporting a concern to Children's Services or disclosing information to third parties such as the courts, local authority, or police where there is a legal obligation to do so. Certain personal information we process to comply with Health and Safety legislation or to ensure we fulfil our obligations in providing SEN education.

Vital interests: where processing the information is necessary to protect the vital interests of an individual where their life is at risk.

Public task: SSET relies on public interest for much of its processing when providing education and care to students. For example, we rely on public task as the lawful basis on which we collect and use your personal data for the following:

- Registration of eligible students, data assessment, profiling, and statistical analysis.
- To complete returns/reports as required by the Local Authorities and/or DfE/ESFA (e.g. ESFA's ILR returns and the DfE's annual census).
- To establish and analyse student attendance, behaviour, and progress; and
- To promoting safeguarding to help ensure students welfare.

Contract: where SSET provides data to suppliers or others under a contract or at your request prior to entering a contract.

SSET must also comply with an additional condition when processing special category data, which includes any information relating to race, ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic information, biometric information, health information and information about sex life or sexual orientation.

10. Consent

SSET may ask for your consent to use information in certain ways. Where SSET is relying on consent as a means to process personal data, an individual may withdraw this consent at any time. Any use of your information before you withdraw consent remains valid. Please be aware that SSET may have another lawful reason to process the personal data in question even without your consent - this reason will usually be stated within this Privacy Notice or may exist under another contract or agreement with the individual.

SSET will often rely on parental consent to process the data relating to students (if consent is required) unless it is more appropriate to rely on the students' consent. Parents should be aware that in such circumstances they may not be consulted on the request or receipt of consent from the child – although this will ultimately depend on the interests of the child, the parents' rights at law and all the circumstances. Students or their parents, if appropriate, will be asked to sign an acceptable user agreement for using IT.

In general, SSET will assume that students' consent is not required for the ordinary disclosure of their personal data to their parents. This communication is important for the purposes of keeping parents informed about the student's activities, progress, and behaviour. Parents should be aware that where a student seeks to raise concerns confidentially with a member of staff at SSET and expressly withholds their consent to disclose this information to their parents, SSET may be under an obligation to maintain confidentiality, unless disclosure is in the best interests of the student or other students or required by law.

Students are required to respect the personal data and privacy of others.

Please send any notifications of withdrawal of consent to our Data Protection Lead in the first instance.

11. Keeping your personal information secure

SSET will use appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of personal data and has policies and procedures in place in this regard.

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

All staff and Trustees will be made aware of the Privacy Notice, their duties under data protection law and all will receive the appropriate level of training in relation to the same.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

If you would like detailed information from Get Safe Online on how to protect your information and your computers and devices against fraud, identity theft, viruses and many other online problems, please visit Get Safe Online | The UK's leading Online Safety Advice Resource. Get Safe Online is supported by HM Government and leading businesses.

12. Who has access to personal information:

Personal data collected by SSET will, for the most part, remain within SSET and will be processed by appropriate individuals only in accordance with access protocols by staff on a need-to-know basis.

Access to the following types of information is highly restricted:

- Medical records (which are held by the SSET Nurse and accessed only by individuals who legitimately need to know the information to provide the correct support for the student).
- Safeguarding files (which are accessed only by the Principal, Designated Safeguarding Lead or member of staff authorised by either to assist with the matter).

Access to SEND data relating to a special educational need and/or disability of a student will need to be provided to staff more widely so that the necessary education and safeguards can be put in place.

Parents and students are reminded that the SSET, as an education provider, has a number of duties imposed by law and statutory guidance in relation to recording and reporting incidents and concerns that arise or are reported to it. There may be an obligation to report some cases regardless of whether they are proven at that stage, and in particular, where their nature or regularity means that they meet the threshold for referral. In some instances, notes on safeguarding files, personnel or student files may need to be referred to the relevant authorities such as the LADO or Police. For further information on this, please see SSET's Safeguarding, Child Protection & Adult at Risk Policy, which is available on the SSET website.

13. Transfer of your information out of the EEA

We do not intend to transfer your information out of the UK or outside of the EEA during the course of our general operations. The information we hold is stored in the UK. In the event that we do need to transfer your information overseas, we will inform you accordingly.

If you would like further information, please contact our Data Protection Lead (see 'How to contact us' below). We will not otherwise transfer your personal data outside of the UK or EEA.

14. Your rights

Under the UK GDPR you have a number of important rights free of charge. In summary, those include rights to:

- Fair processing of information and transparency over how we use your personal information.

- Access to your personal information and to certain other supplementary information that this Privacy Notice is already designed to address.
- Require us to correct any mistakes in your information which we hold.
- Require the erasure of personal information concerning you in certain situations.

- Object at any time to the processing of personal information concerning you for direct marketing.
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means which produce legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affect you.
- Object in certain other situations to our continued processing of your personal information.
- Otherwise restrict our processing of your personal information in certain circumstances; and
- Claim compensation for damages caused by our breach of any data protection laws.

For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they apply, see Guidance from the Information Commissioner's Office \(ICO\) on the UK GDPR Rights of Individuals.

If you would like to exercise any of the above rights, please:

- Email, call or write to us – all correspondence to be marked for the attention of our Data Protection Lead (see 'How to contact us' below).
- Let us have enough information to identify you – for example, your full name, details of the school/college house and, if appropriate, name of your child at SSET.
- Let us have proof of your identity and address (a copy of your driving licence or passport and a recent utility or credit card bill); and
- Let us know the information to which your request relates.

If you would like to unsubscribe from any communications, please contact us to let us know (see 'How to contact us' below).

Any individual that wishes to access or amend their personal data, or request for it to be transferred outside the organisation, or who has some other objection to how their personal data is being used, should put their request in writing to the SSET Data Protection Lead (see 'How to contact us' below).

SSET will endeavour to respond to such written requests as soon as reasonably practicable and in line with any statutory timeframes. Regarding requests to access data, SSET has one month to respond; please note that SSET will be better able to respond efficiently to requests that are clear and specific. If the request is manifestly excessive or similar to previous requests, SSET may ask you to reconsider your request or charge an appropriate fee for dealing with it (where permitted under data protection law).

You should be aware that certain data is exempt from right of access, such as information which identifies other individuals, or information which is subject to legal professional privilege. SSET is also not required to disclose any student examination scripts (though examiners' comments may be disclosable), nor any confidential reference given by SSET for the purposes of the education, training, or employment of any individual.

SSET will endeavour to ensure that all personal data is held up to date and as accurate as possible. Individuals must notify SSET of any significant changes to important information, such as contact details. Parents may request that out-of-date, irrelevant, or inaccurate data is erased or corrected.

15. Student requests

Students can make subject access requests for their own personal data on their own behalf, provided that, in the reasonable opinion of SSET, they have sufficient maturity to understand the request they are making. Generally, a person with Parental Responsibility for a child can make a subject access request on behalf of a child, however the data itself is legally considered to belong to the child.

A student of any age may ask a parent or other representative to make a subject access request on his or her behalf. Parents should note that the child's consent or authority may need to be sought if the child is of sufficient age, which is generally assumed to be the age of 13 (although this will depend on the child and the data requested, including any relevant home circumstances). All requests will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

It is accepted that most subject access requests for student of SSET will be made by parents or guardians and this may be done without the express permission of the student. All requests will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

16. How to complain

We hope that you can quickly and satisfactorily resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information. Please contact our Data Protection Lead in the first instance.

We will use the SSET Complaints Policy in the event there is a complaint or concern that SSET has not complied with its data protection obligations.

The UK General Data Protection Regulations \(UK GDPR\) also gives you the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. The supervisory authority in the UK is the Information Commissioner who may be contacted at Make a complaint | ICO. However, it is recommended that steps are taken to resolve the matter with the relevant organisation before involving the regulator.
